DANCE FOR CHANGE

DANCE FOR CHANGE is an important funding program that supports THE CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY DANCE, INC. in developing and delivering productions, programs and outreach services that:

- Inspire community consciousness about social equality and the value of diversity
- Support women and minority artists in their efforts to create and showcase meaningful new works
- Provide arts education programs and increase access to the arts for underserved youth and public school children
- Meet the expressive and creative needs of marginalized populations, including the elderly and disabled
- Entertain and enlighten the community-at-large with contemporary perspectives in dance

$250 funds a month of full-time classes for one underserved child.

$500 allows 25 underserved youth free access to a performance.

$1,000 funds costuming for 3 dancers in a mainstream production.

$2,000 funds a single, two-month Community Outreach/Arts Education program.

$5,000 funds the production of a new work by THE CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY DANCE.

Contributions of all amounts have an impact!
